

ZIF6471XB BI Hob

One convenient way to cook for many

The clever FlexiBridge feature takes the hard work out of cooking large quantities. The four zones are interconnected, meaning that they can be combined to create one cooking area. And with shared settings and even heating across the surface, your largest pots and pans can be used. So it's more convenient to cook for many.

Hot, wherever you place your pot

Place your pots and pans wherever you want with our MaxiSense® hob – simply ensure that cookware is placed within the cooking zones. Then let our clever technology automatically detect the size and shape of each base, heating up only the area that's needed.

Total temperature control with just a fingertip!

The slider-touch sensitive controls on this hob let you easily increase or reduce the heat to the exact level you want with just a slide of your fingertip.
